

Tiny Leaders: Reborn Supplement to the Magic Tournament Rules (TSMTR)

This document is an unofficial supplement to the Magic: the Gathering Tournament Rules (MTR) as laid out here.

Last updated: October 03, 2026

Effective Date: October 05, 2026

Tiny Leaders: Reborn (hereafter referred to as TL:R) is an unofficial format not supported or endorsed by Wizards of the Coast ®. As such, all updates and changes to, as well as concerns with, this document are the responsibility of the TL:R Committee, which can be found on Discord here.

TL:R is intended, and this document written, for 1v1 play. This document may not apply to situations in multi-player games.

In as much as is possible, this document will reference relevant sections of the Magic Tournament Rules, as well as follow the numbering format. As a Supplement, this document will only reflect rules that differ from the MTR (such as exceptions, changes, and/or additions). Bold portions indicate content differing from the MTR.

1.10 Players

Players are responsible for:

- Being familiar with the rules of the MTR as well as applicable supplementary documents

2.7 Deck Registration

Generally, decklists are not....single-elimination playoffs.

- In TL:R tournaments using decklists, a player's commander(s) are noted on the decklist and cannot be substituted or otherwise changed during the event.

3.3 Authorized Cards

Players may use....promotional printings. They may use unauthorized cards (colloquially known as “proxies”) only if the Tournament Organizer permits.

4.1 Player Communication

Free information consists of:

- The number of times a commander has been cast from the command zone.

6.1 Deck Construction Restrictions

Constructed decks... fifteen cards. Decks constructed for the TL:R format must be exactly 50 cards, to include its commander(s). A player's commander(s) are determined as a match begins and cannot be changed during a match. If a player chooses to use a sideboard, it cannot contain more than ten cards.

6.8 TL:R deck construction

TL:R decks may consist of cards from all Magic card sets. Cards from expansions and special sets (like From the Vault, Magic: The Gathering—Commander, Duel Decks, Conspiracy, etc.) are legal in the TL:R format on the date of release of the expansion or special set.

TL:R uses three ban lists. One list refers to cards banned entirely in the format. The second refers to cards that cannot be played as a deck's commander (banned as commander) though may be played in the main deck or sideboard. The third refers to cards that cannot be used as a Companion (see CR 103.2b and 702.139).

The following cards are banned in TL:R

Categories:

- All cards with a silver border, gold border, or acorn stamp
- Cards with the card type Conspiracy
- Cards whose art, text, name, or combination thereof that are racially or culturally offensive are banned in all formats. The most up-to-date list can be found here.
- Cards that reference playing for ante.
- Cards that bring stickers or attractions into the game. A full list of cards can be found here.
